Bona Dea, the 'Good Goddess' was a divinity in ancient Roman and Greek mythology.

Bona, in Latin, has overtones of worthiness, nobility, honesty, bravery, health, and rightness. Bona Dea is an Earth Goddess who protects woman through all their changes, and blesses women and the earth with fertility. Bona Dea's true name is Fauna. It means "She who wishes well".

location, location

Just ninety minutes' drive from Cape Town International Airport and 4km from the breath-taking town of Hermanus. Hermanus is known as one of South Africa's most popular tourist destinations due to its award-winning blue flag beaches, whale watching experience, wine route, art festivals and magnificent Overberg fynbos.

Bona Dea Private Estate is hailed as one of the most romantic and dramatic locations in South Africa. The estate boasts endless views across heavenly vineyards, wild fynbos and mountainous terrain - perfect for an idyllic country escape. Its natural water features and pristine garden terraces make this luxurious venue perfect for your special day, with an array of décor options on offer that are flexible and can be personalised.
